Divorce Through Kids' Eyes

A DOCUMENTARY
FILM BY ELLEN BRUNO

“A powerful film that every divorcing parent should watch before they meet with lawyers, mediators, or financial professionals. Then when things get rocky, they should watch it again.”

– Talia L. Katz, JD, Executive Director, IACP
International Academy of Collaborative Professionals

Over half the children in America experience their parents' separation. What if we knew what was in their hearts and minds?

SPLIT is a deeply personal film, made in collaboration with children aged 6-12, that explores the often frightening and always life-altering separation of their parents.

SPLIT is made exclusively from the point of view of the children—no adults, no experts—just kids speaking the powerful truth of what is on their minds and in their hearts as their families change.

The remarkable wisdom, candor, and humor of these testimonies give courage to children and encourage parents to make better choices as they move through divorce.

“The academic and emotional impact of divorce on my students... depression, anger and sadness... makes SPLIT an invaluable tool in the classroom.”

– Sesheta Hanible
Public Elementary School Teacher
Harvey Milk Civil Rights Academy
San Francisco

“SPLIT gives children an opportunity to be heard over the chaos of family dissolution. Bruno brings the honest, unfiltered feelings of children to the awareness of anyone dealing with children and divorce.”
